

Charting the way ahead to maritime growth

Date: 3 October 2016, 14:00-19:00 hrs

Venue: Old Ballroom, Mansion House, Mansion House Place, London EC4N 8HB

14:00 Welcome Address

The Rt Hon the Lord Mayor, Lord Mountevans

Session 1: UK Maritime Growth Study - one year on

Chairman: The Rt Hon the Lord Mayor, Lord Mountevans

14:10 Keynote speech

Philip Rutnam, Permanent Secretary, Department for Transport, UK Government

14:25 Industry's response to Recommendations - progress made so far and steps required

David Dingle, Chairman, Maritime UK

14:40 Panel discussion - Industry and government progress report

This interactive panel discussion will focus on the progress made since the publication one year ago of the UK Maritime Growth Study and its Recommendations, with each panellist giving 5 mins introduction covering relevant to the key points.

Panelists:

- Doug Barrow, Chief Executive, Maritime London & Chair of Marketing & Promotion Group, Maritime UK
- Russell Gould, Chair of Export & Investment Group, Maritime UK
- Rod Paterson, Deputy Director, Maritime Growth Implementation, Department for Transport
- Bill Walworth CBE, Chair of People & Skills Group, Maritime UK

15:40 Refreshments Break

Session 2 Maritime services and the City - supporting the UK economy in a changing world

Chairman: Harry Theochari, Partner – Global Head of Transport, Norton Rose Fulbright LLP

16:00 Chairman's opening remarks

16:10 UK maritime professional services: contribution and trends - *tbc

David Smith, Director – Strategy, PwC

16:25 Panel discussion - Opportunities for UK maritime players post-Brexit

This interactive panel discussion will focus on positives and potential benefits UK maritime industry players could expect from Brexit. Each panellist will give a 5 mins statement outlining his/her views.

Panelists:

- David Balston, Director of Safety and Environment, UK Chamber of Shipping
- Theresa Crossley, Executive Director, UK Major Ports Group
- David Dingle, Chairman, Maritime UK
- Rosa Wilkinson, Director, Stakeholder Engagement, Trade Policy Group, Department for International Trade, UK Government
- Senior representative of Lloyd's of London – tbc

17:25 Conclusions

The Rt Hon the Lord Mayor, Lord Mountevans

17:30 Drinks Reception

19:00 Ends